

nce in a while, people who love people are drawn together like magnets. The forces of nature create a vacuum which is a State of Grace. To miss this opportunity can cause serious emotional damage to most humans and sometimes madness in weaker specimens of the same species. At the very least, you could suffer from devastating case of square-I-tus and a mild form of diarrhea.

It is our hope to save as many of you as possible.

Thankfully, we will have such an opportunity at 9:33pm on Friday, April 15th.

The Hollywood Rock 'n Roll revivalists Killingbird will be offering a special blend of trashy rock and sharp metal hooks with punk undertones. This menacing brand of Gutter Glam will be dispensed at a feverish pitch. The weak at heart are asked to be accompanied by a responsible driver.

All of this will be experienced at THE GIG on Melrose at the previously mentioned hour and date.

In addition, the first 5 adults to whisper “Get at them beans” into the ear of front man Christian that evening, will receive the shirt of their choice, courtesy of FULLONCLOTHING.COM.

Now, print this token of our affection to the THE GIG so they know that you are one of us, and they will slash the shit out of your admittance cost. They may even give you a hug.
